4. How to form an ELAC committee by Karla Tafoya: Karla Tafoya tells us about the importance of the ELAC committee and to be part of it we are attached that to be part of the society of the ELAC not necessarily have to be people with Wolf Canyon children can also be members of our community, but as Parents of student children have the option to fill out the form to be part of the committee and thus have a voice and vote. The ELAC committee is formed of a President, Vice President, Secretary, DELAC and alternate DELAC. Which are chosen each year by the voting parent members, it also mentions that it is important to note that the ELAC meetings and committee are not only for English Learner parents as they also address important issues for any parent who is a student of our school.
5. DELAC report: ELAC President Katia Padilla informs the DELAC report "How to raise your bilingual child in a monolingual home" presented by Scott Andersons, also named as a volunteer parent of the year for the high impact he has despite his difficulties. Also Dr. Fco. Escobedo talked about how to maintain a relationship through gratitude. It is mentioned that opens new status approved by 64 votes in favor and 11 against this mentions the exchange though the importance of having done it and to see given our points of view and suggestions.
6. SPSA (Single plan for student achievement) by Mr.Mathew Shy: The principal of our school, Mr. Shy, explains a little more about what SPSA is, and explains how it is valued by giving us the tabulations of last year and the progress that has been made so far with students from different areas, raising their goals, and the progress you expect to obtain later. He also explains that part of his job is to see the weekly progress of each student in order to have access and identify what is needed for each one of them sending their report to the teachers and asking for collaboration to help in achieving their goals. Provides the California School DASHBOARD website that as parents we can access it and see the progress of our school in different areas.
7. Oral communications "Reading abilities improvement by Jieun Yoon: Jieun Yoon, mother of 2 Wolf Canyon students and member of the ELAC society, talks to us about the importance of knowing how to value our children's reading and how to help them in their reading skills to have the effect of better academic performance that helps to pass their student district exams and in the future the entrance to university.
